

practices | convergenceokc.org

kids: THE DAILY EXAMEN

A simplified version of the Examen may look like a two-part assessment of your child's day. Ask some questions about how your child experienced the "highs" of life; then ask about the "lows" they might have encountered.

Ex. "What in your day made you happy?"

"Was there anything about today that made you sad?"